DETECTIVE GUION EXPECTS HER ARREST.

Detective Albert Guion, who has been detailed on the case, was confident last evening that Miss Goldman would be arrested before morning. He believed that she had left St. Louis Saturday night, as reported. With Chiefs Desmond and Kiely he was confident that she had boarded a Chicago train, but left it at a small Illinois

Though she has not attended school to any great extent, Emma Goldman is said to be one of the best-educated women in the country. She speaks English, German, French, Russian and Hebrew, and has a smattering of Italian. Her reading has been almost all along one line, however. She was married ten years ago, but left her husband after less than two years.

At 19 o'clock Saturday morning Emma Goldman sent a telegram to a friend in Chicago. Ernst Kurzenknabe, in whose saloon she was at that time, called for a mes-senger and had it sent. He claims not to know for whom it was destined. After sending the telegram Miss Goldman wrote two letters. At 8:59 Saturday evening a messeuger brought a telegram to Miss Goldman in reply to hers sent earlier in the day. Miss Goldman had left Kurzenknabe's saloon ten minutes earlier to confer with several an-archists on the balcony at Tony Faust's. Kurzenknabe signed for the message and himself took it to Miss Goldman. He re-mained at Faust's until 9:35 p. m. He claims not to have seen Miss Goldman since.

More thorough search for a person, the police say, has never been made in St. Louis. The authorities, of course, have never before had such an incentive for running down a person. No reward is offered for the capture of Emma Goldman, for the simple reason that none is needed. WHERE CZOLGOSZ WILL BE TRIED,

Efforts Will Be Made to Get the Case in the United States Court.

PENALTY WOULD BE THE SAME.

If It Can Be Shown That a Conspiracy Existed the Federal Officials Will Try the Case.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Washington, Sept. 9.-Czolgosz may be tried in the United States District Court at Buffalo instead of the State court. Solicitor General Richards, who in the absence of Attorney General Knox is Acting Attorney General, said to-day that the question of whether Czolgosz could be tried in the United States Court would depend upon whether his crime was his individual action or was the result of a conspiracy. If it can be shown that Czolgosz had one comrade it is a case of conspiracy, and, according to Solicitor General Richards, could be tried under rections 5508 and 5509 of the Revised Statutes.

Mr. Richards said to-day that the declaions of the court under these sections were of such a character that there was no doubt in his mind that Czolgosz and his fellow-criminals, if any one was associated with him, could be tried under them. The Solicitor General regretted that it would not be possible under these sections to impose any more severe penalty upon the criminal than would be imposed by the New York law, but he thought it might be an advantage to have the proceedings in a United States court if possible, especially in view of the fact that persons convicted in the United States courts cannot be pardoned by any one except the President of the Uni-

Auxious to Prosecute the Case. Secretary Gage and Attorney General Knox will be in Washington to-morrow when there will be a conference between them and Solicitor General Richards and Chief of Secret Service Wilkie. Mr. Wilkie is anxious that the case may be transferred to the United States Court, if possible, and will co-operate in every way with the De partment of Justice. His officers are working independently and in connection with the local police in various cities, and are following up every clew that promises to stablish the fact that Czolgosz had a confederate. Chief Wilkie is pursuing his usual policy of keeping silent until he can report results, and will say nothing of the details of the work the Secret Service men are do

It is impossible to say in advance of the conference to-morrow whether there will be a general round-up of all the anarchists who have expressed approval of the act of Czolgosz. The Attorney General will be consulted on this point. Solicitor General Richards said this even ing that much would depend upon the character of the evidence the Secret Service of ficers might be able to procure. He indicated that the Department of Justice would be glad to prosecute as many of the an-archists as Chief Wilkie could draw into his

There seems to be no abatement in the interest displayed in President McKinley's condition, and there is certainly no abatement in the sympathy of the public.
TWO THOUSAND PERSONS KEPT ALL-NIGHT VIGIL.

At the hour when Buffalonians most ger erally retire the announcement was made last night that President McKinley was constantly improving, and that his condition was entirely satisfactory. Yet in spite of all this, the crowds refused to be satisfled, and all night long they lingered in the streets near the Milburn house. They pushed in as close as the guard would permit them, and at the half-hour intervals insisted upon sending messengers into the newspaper tent to obtain the latest infor-

After each bulletin, a few would retire but others were ready to take their places and at sunrise this morning more 2,000 people were within two blocks of the house in which the stricken President lies. It is so cold to-night that this will hardly be repeated, but so persistent are the demands for the latest information that arrangements have been made with the telephone company to give the bulletins to all who may request them.

Another indication of confidence in the President's recovery was the announcement made to-night by President Buchanan of the Pan-American Exposition that there would be another President's Day before the show closed. It is proposed to make the occasion a festival of rejoicing over the President's recovery.

Mr. Buchanan did not make the announce ment until he had received rather positive assurance that the President would recover, Miss Helen McKinley and Mrs. Duncan Provident McKinley's sisters, left to-nigh for the West, indicating their belief that the crisis had been safely passed. One of the physicians who is attending the President was asked to-night if recovery was quoted as authority for the statement that the President has spoken at intervals of several things he proposes to do in the future. This morning he asked to be allowed to change his position, and when permission was given, before the attendants could him, he changed to the position he desired to assume without difficulty or pain. This speaks much for his general strength and spirits.

"I would not say that," said he, "but the outlook is very favorable. Circulation of the blood has been re-established and the developments of the day have all been in the direction of recovery."

PHYSICIANS WILL NOT SAY PRESIDENT WILL RECOVER.

Mrs. McKinley saw him again to-day for brief visit, and Secretary Cortelyou was idmitted for the first time. No one else was allowed to see him, although he inquired several times who were below stairs. He was given nourishment to-day in the form of eggs beaten in milk administered through the rectum. The water which been given heretofore cold did not appear to agree with him, and since last night very hot water has been taken into the stomach through the mouth with splendid results. His bowels moved freely during the day,

The extreme optimism of the Vice Presiient and the members of the Cabinet would be difficult to overstate. "I am absolutely confident everything will urn out all right," declared the Vice President, and he said he based his confidence on information behind the public expres sions of the physicians.
